Salary Commission Interviews (45 min.)

Staff Lead: MaryAnn Hardie

Department: Human Resources
Preparer: MaryAnn Hardie

---

Background/History

At the direction of Council, there was a new City salary commission ordinance drafted by legal and approved by Council in February 2017. Based on direction by Council to institute a salary commission, there were 5 vacancies created that needed to be filled (in order for the salary commission to begin their work on this process this summer).

Staff Recommendation

Interview the Mayor's 3 appointments to the salary commission (Jay Grant, Pat Mulva and Don Hall).

Narrative

The notice of the commission position openings was posted on February 27, 2017 and the application deadline date for the vacancies was March 20, 2017. From this process, there were 5 qualified candidates (Jay Grant, Pat Mulva, Don Hall, Carl Zapora, and Tyler Nebeker) who applied and were interviewed by the Mayor at the end of March and in April 2017. As a result, these 5 candidates were appointed by the Mayor to serve on the commission.

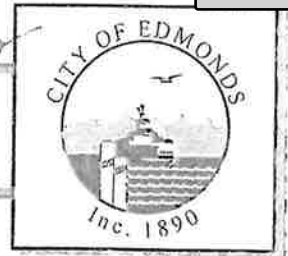

For this reason, these appointees have been invited to attend a Council meeting so that Council may have an opportunity for discussion with them about the commission and for confirmation of their appointments.

In consideration of Council's time to interview/confirm the appointments, 3 appointments are before Council at this meeting (Jay Grant, Pat Mulva and Don Hall). The remaining 2 appointments (Carl Zapora and Tyler Nebeker) will be interviewed at an upcoming Council meeting in May 2017.

The applications for the three candidates for confirmation are attached.
