Discussion Executive Assistant to Council Contract

Staff Lead: Jessica Neill Hoyson

Department: Human Resources

Preparer: Jessica Neill Neill Hoyson

Background/History

The Executive Assistant to Council position and the status of that position as a contract employee is established via Edmonds City Code. The question has been presented as to whether or not this position could be classified as a regular employee instead of a contract employee.

Staff Recommendation

Discuss the differences between a regular employee and contract employee. Discuss legal implications of changing the employment parameters for this position, as established in City code.

Narrative

See attached City code.
